

Individual Member Application Form

Thank you for your interest in supporting the ITI by joining as an Individual Member.

Keith Johnstone created the ITI in 1998 to promote and develop a worldwide improvisation community focused around his formats: Theatresports™, Maestro Impro™, and Gorilla Theatre™. Members of the ITI community can be found all across the world. Have a look at our members' page to see where! <https://impro.global/membership/members>

To become a Member, complete this application form, email it back to us and pay the membership fee of $25 CAD (see payment options below). Canadian residents: Please add 5% GST on top of the base fee amount.

Once your application has been received and your payment processed we will email your Membership Certificate. Then your Membership benefits begin. You'll receive our monthly ITI newsletter containing interviews with international improvisation companies and articles written by such teachers as Keith Johnstone, Steve Jarand, Frank Totino, Shawn Kinley, Patti Stiles and more. You'll be listed in our members area of the website and receive discounts to ITI events like our International Conference held every two years.

Please note an individual membership does not give you the rights to perform or use Johnstone formats.
